3. The First Nations Child and Family Caring Society of Canada (the Caring Society)	Developed in 1998 at a national meeting of First Nations child and family service agencies, the Caring Society works to ensure the safety and well-being of First Nations youth and their families through education initiatives, public policy campaigns and providing quality resources to support communities. Using a reconciliation framework that addresses contemporary hardships for Indigenous families in ways that uplift all Canadians, the Caring Society champions culturally based equity for First Nations children and their families so that they can grow up safely at home, be healthy, achieve their dreams, celebrate their languages and culture and be proud of who they are. The Caring Society proudly works	https://fncaringsociety.com/about-us
